Satabhishekam CELEBRATION COMMITTEE
(Under the auspices of Sruti Seva Trust)

2nd August, 2010

Blessed Self,

We are happy to inform you that Puja Swami Dayananda Saraswati is entering 81st year and the Satabhishekam celebration for Puja Swamiji is due in July 2011 at Coimbatore city.

The accomplishments of Puja Swamiji in the last few decades criss-crossing the globe continuously without rest has been unprecedented. Be it his creating more than 300 teachers of Vedanta, starting 80+ student homes where more than 3000 children from rural and tribal areas get free stay and board with education, bringing together different Acharyas of our Sanatana Dharma having diverse traditions under one umbrella, and initiating dialogue with leaders of other religions for bringing about better harmony and peace in the world, Puja Swamiji stands out in the world arena with his unparalleled contribution.

It is the bounden duty of everyone who have benefited from the teachings of Puja Swamiji and who know the various seva activities that he has undertaken as well as his extensive initiatives to protect Hindu dharma and culture, to befittingly celebrate his Satabhishekam as a humble offering of our gratitude and to seek the grace of Isvara to bestow a long and healthy life for Puja Swamiji so that humanity can continue to benefit from his teaching and seva activities.

We propose to offer to Puja Swamiji a grand gurudakshina as our SAMARPANAM on 22nd July, 2011. We seek your total participation in our efforts to achieve the target and be the recipient of Puja Swamiji's boundless grace. Donations can be sent to "Samarpanam" office in Coimbatore.

With best wishes and regards,

Yours

S.Sunitha
