

Announcement of a Three-year Long Term Course in Vedanta, Sanskrit and allied subjects

Arsha Vidya Gurukulam is pleased to announce a long term course in Vedanta, Sanskrit and allied subjects for a period of three years beginning in the last week of July 2010.

This course will be run under the guidance of Pujya Sri Swami Dayananda Saraswati, the Chief Acharya of the course.

The classes will be taken by Pujya Swamiji whenever Pujya Swamiji will be in the Gurukulam. When Swamiji is away on tours, the classes will be taken by the teaching faculty in the ashram led by Sri Swami Sakshatkrtananda, the resident Acharya.

The Course syllabus includes an in-depth study of Sri Sankara's commentaries (Bhashyam) on major Upanishads, Bhagavad Gita and Brahmasutra Catussutri as well as Paninian Grammar.

Students will be selected from the three-month Geeta Course of Pujya Swamiji scheduled to take place from April 20 to July 20. Students who are graduates, who have reasonable knowledge of English and who have dedicated themselves to the full-time spiritual pursuit can apply immediately to the following address in the same form as is available in the website arshavidya.in (refer Newsletter Dec 09/Jan 10).
