

Living The Learning - Swami Dayananda Saraswatis Talk in Bangalore

Date : February 20, 2011

The garden city of Bangalore extended a very warm, gracious and respectful welcome to Pujya Swami Dayananda Saraswati on the 4 February, 2011. Banners and festoons were put up at all strategic places in the city informing about Swamiji's talks.

People gathered in large numbers for morning guided meditation classes. The chill weather did not prove a deterrent to the many, who eagerly participated in the morning meditation sessions. The guided meditation helped them to rejuvenate and rediscover self. The evening lectures drew record number of people who listened in rapt attention.

Swamiji delivered series of lectures on "Living the Learning". His lectures unfolded a holistic approach to living, bringing in some meaning into our life. His lectures highlighted that key to blossoming into a human being is in cultivating compassion to fellow being.

Swamiji addressed a gathering of CEOs in Bangalore on 4 February, 2011. He introduced AIM for Seva and the vision behind the movement.

His topic "Transformational Leadership" was an eye opener to the younger generation - a meeting with a true friend, philosopher and a guide.

The first book to be released on this occasion was 'Breaking India' written by Rajiv Malhotra and Aravindan Neelakandan.

This book focuses on how India's integrity is being undermined by global networks that have well-established operating bases inside India.

Kannada version of the Bhagavad Gita Home Study of Pujya Swamiji, volume 4 and 5 containing chapters 7 to 12 were released by Swamiji. The English version had been translated into Kannada by Swamini Varadananda Saraswatiji.

The Bhagavad Gita Home Study is not just another Gita Book. It is classroom teaching and presented to the reader as a program for self-study. While reading one can actually feel that he or she is listening to the Guru directly in the classroom.

On the 5 February, the film 'A day at the Chatralaya' was screened for the gathering.

On 6 February, a very special movie on Swamiji called 'Satabhishekham' was screened which showed all of Swamiji's activities dedicated to the community. This was followed by Swamiji's address. Later yagna prasada was distributed to the gathering. Books by Swamiji were well received at Arsha Vidya Research and Publication counter in the venue.
