

On Sunday, May 4, the Gurukulam celebrated SankaraJayanti with a special puja to AdiSankara.

On Saturday, May 3, ArshaVidyaGurukulam received Swami Viditatmanandaji who arrived from India. Priests Raviji and Ganeshji performed PurnaKumbha at approximately noontime. There were several devotees who were eagerly awaiting his arrival and were present for the ceremony. Swamiji's arrival at the Gurukulam marks the beginning of an always exciting season of summer retreats and camps attended by several hundred students throughout the summer. To begin, Swamiji will continue teaching Chapter 18 of the Bhagavad Gita on the 1st and 3rd Sunday weekend classes. For this year's Memorial Day retreat, Swamiji will teach classes on Mamekam-saranam-vraja and for the Independence Day retreat, the topic is Yo-madbhakta-sa-me-priyaha. Swamiji will be teaching weeklong courses during his annual Bhasyam camp and for the Family Vedanta Retreats I, II, and III. In addition, he will conduct public talks and satsangs for his many devotees living throughout
