Arsha Vidya Pitham

Swami Dayananda, Ashram, Rishikesh
cordially invites you to the auspicious

Mahākumbhābhīṣekam

of

Śrī Gaṅgādhareśwara Temple

at the Ashram

Monday, 3 February 2014
to Thursday, 6 February 2014

Situated on the banks of holy Ganga is the temple of Śrī Gaṅgādhareśwara at Swami Dayananda Ashram, Rishikesh. The main deity is a svayambhu linga discovered in 1966 under a small tree near Ganga, and pūjā was performed by Pūjya Swamiji himself for a few years. The temple was later consecrated in 1975. By the benign grace of Lord Gaṅgā-dhareśwara and as envisioned by Swamiji, the ashram grew by leaps and bounds within a short span of time.

With expansion and renovation works, a second Kumbhābhīṣekam was performed in the year 1996. At that time the mūrtis of Gaṅgādhareśwara, Mahāganespati, Devīkāta Jyēṣṭhīṅga, Adī Śankarācārya, and Śrī Āṅgīṅgāya were installed and consecrated.

Pūjā along with Vedic chanting and Gaṅgā Aṅgī is an inspiring daily ritual in the ashram. In the very presence of Lord Gaṅgādhareśwara and Mother Haimavatī more than 220 disciples have been initiated into the holy order of Sannyāsa by Pūjya Swamiji. Śrī Gaṅgādhareśwara continues to be a source of blessing and inspiration for all who come to Him.

"Only by consecration does even a traditionally sculpted idol become an altar of worship. This procedure of consecration is a series of steps of highly meaningful rituals and prayers. After the consecration, the daily worship keeps an altar alive with the presence of the Devas. Human emissions call for reconsecration every twelve years, the period that Jupiter (Guru) takes to complete a full round of the Zodiac."

"It is time now that we reconsecrate our altar, Lord Gaṅgādhareśwara on the banks of Ganga at Rishikesh."

Dayananda

With the grace of the Lord and Pūjya Swamiji's saṅkalpa, we plan the reconsecration on 6th February 2014.

There will be an elaborate pūjā and ritual conducted by 40 vaidiks before the Mahākumbhābhīṣekam ceremony for four days from 3rd to 6th February 2014. Naturally a ceremony of this scale will involve a large expenditure. Therefore, we appeal to you for your participation and generous donation.

The following sponsorship schemes are available:

1. Gold coated Kalasa – ₹ 2,00,000
2. Silver Kalasa – ₹ 1,00,000
3. Copper Kalasa – ₹ 25,000
4. Annadhānam (per session) – ₹ 10,000
5. Rituals Saṅkalpa per day – ₹ 5,000 (upto 5 persons)
6. Gaṅgā Aṅgī per day – ₹ 3,000

The holy water kept in the kalasas during the ritual will be blessed by Homas and Chāms for four days and offered to Lord Gaṅgādhareśwara & the parvata deities during the consecration. The sponsored kalasa will be given to the sponsor after the function.
