Meaning

1. I contemplate on Sri Guru Dayananda Yati, who dwells always in the heart of his devotees.
2. I contemplate on Him who is ānanda endowed with limitless glories, who is the guru of the entire humanity, also who is a celestial kalpaka tree for those who surrender to him.
3. I contemplate on him who is always soft in his talks, who (enjoys) cares in the welfare of (for) others, who is a priceless adore to the enlightened souls, who dispels the fear of saṃsāra, who revels in one's own nature which is Sadananda (sat+ānanda) to those who are desirous of knowing the only truth of Vedānta.
