

This is the reason Yajnavalkya wants to quit family life (grow out of his need) and also all his wealth without allowing his need to consume and destroy him. This is the reason Sannyasa (renunciation) is glorified in the Hindu tradition because it means that the person has grown out of all his needs and is at peace with whatever is available. Understanding that a relationship is based on one's own need makes it mutually beneficial, makes us more responsible and accountable too. If I understand this fact I will try to grow out of it. If not I will get sucked into it. Choice is ours!
