BREAKING INDIA- WESTERN INTERVENTIONS IN DRAVIDIAN AND DALIT FAULTINESS

By Rajiv Malhotra and Aravindan Neelakandan

Publishers: Amaryllis Pages: 640

Price: Rs.695/ US $20

This book has been written after 5 years of research. Analysis has been done over 19 chapters.

Three global networks that have well established operating bases inside India, undermine India's integrity. First is Islamic radicalism linked with Pakistan. Second is Marxist radicals supported by China. Third is Dravidian and Dalit identity separatism being fostered by the West.

The focus is on the role of U.S. and European Churches, academics, foundations, Government and human rights groups in fostering separation. It tracks money trails that start out claiming to be for education, human rights and empowerment training but end up in programmes designed to misguide Indian youth to separatist thinking.

The British to suit their colonial interests had the policy of divide and rule. Hence they created a myth that Aryans and Dravidians are separate races. Christian evangelists and local Politicians use this myth for their selfish ends. Christian organizations in the West spread false propaganda that Dalits and religious minorities are persecuted in India.

The Aryan race theory has been rejected by Europe. But the academics and media in India still hold on to Aryan invasion theory. Many such myths are systematically manufactured and disseminated through entrenched channels with ulterior motive.

A Tamil translation of this English book is also available.

This book is a "MUST READ" for those who are concerned about the unity of India and interested in preserving the cultural and religious legacy of India.
