

Pujya Swamiji Inaugurates Vijay TV Bhakthi Thiruvizha

Pujya Swami Dayananda Saraswathi inaugurated Vijay TV's Bhakthi Thiruvizha, a week long function of spiritual discourses by eminent speakers on 20 June 2011 evening at Kikani Higher Secondary School, Coimbatore. Around 500 devotees attended the function.

Pujya Swamiji said that Bhagawad Gita proclaims that there are four types of bhakthas. Artha bhaktha is the one who prays only at the time of distress. Physical and mental abilities of a human being are limited. Asking help from Iswara during distress is the first step in bhakthi.

Artharthi bhaktha is the one who seeks Iswara's grace for health, wealth and all round well being.

Jignyasu bhaktha is the one who desires to know more about Iswara. He learns to understand everything as Iswara. The more one understands Iswara's glory, less is his ahankara.

Jnani is the highest level bhaktha. There is no difference between Iswara and Jnani.

When one recognize Iswara, bhakthi is born naturally. That bhakthi is capable of discovering more about Iswara. All that is here is Iswara. All our pleasures are Iswara's glory.

One has to be at the right place at the right time to be successful. One should earn enough grace to be at the right place at the right time. Performance of ritual karmas are means for earning grace. In our tradition thought, word and deeds are used to develop shradha and bhakthi. The bhakthi blossoms to purnatvam.

Pujya Swamiji blessed the devotees for success in spiritual pursuit.

Report by N. Avinashilingam